

Secondhand Smoke

A Consumer Household Poll

A base-line survey of consumers in select communities to assess awareness of and attitudes regarding the effects of secondhand smoke.

for: American Medical Association (AMA)

Private & Confidential

The following is considered private and confidential and no other person or organization may copy any part of the following for purposes of implementation, discussion or forwarding to another organization without the prior consent of Intellitrends, LLC.